Press release

Pristina, April 15 2011- Union of Independent Trade Unions of Kosovo, participated in the table Social Policy in Kosovo: Priorities and Challenges, on April 12, 2011, organized by the Centre for Human Rights at the University of Pristina.

In this table were presented researches of Social Policy in Kosovo: Kosovo Context Social Schemes.

This research was conducted by the Center for Human Rights and the UP Center for Research in Human Rights and European Integration and is supported by the Friedrich Ebert Stiftung (FES).

Social policy from the perspective of trade unions (BSPK) in this table were presented by the representative of BSPK, Shukrije Rexhepi as:

Implementation of existing laws: the Law on Pension Insurance, Health Insurance Law, the Law on Trade Union organization.

Ensuring a sustainable economic development social situation in Kosovo still remains one of the major concerns of the entire population of Kosovo. Low economic development strategy, is very understandable that reflects the apparent increase number of unemployment.
